60 MINUTES

01/02/00 "Need Cash?"- critics say that Florida and a number of other states have, in effect, legalized loan sharking by passing legislation exempting the automobile title lenders from usury laws. As a result people in desperate need of money and without credit, find themselves paying exorbitant interest rates and often having their cars repossessed. (C: Steve Kroft - P: L. Franklin Devine)
"The Coach"- an interview with NFL coach Bill Parcells. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Robert Anderson)
"His Honor, The Mayor"- an interview with Jerry Brown, the former presidential candidate and California governor, and now the Mayor of Oakland, California. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Shari Finkelstein)
Andy Rooney Topic: "2000" - Andy is optimistic about the future

01/09/00 "Adopt Me"- report on the controversy over "adoption fairs" where child welfare agencies introduce hard-to-place children to prospective parents. Critics say it's a cruel practice; proponents claim that it's a "special needs" child's best chance. (C: Morley Safer - P: Denise Schrier Cetta)
"Denzel"- a profile of Denzel Washington, one of America's top actors who now commands over $10 million per movie. (C: Ed Bradley - P: Ruth Streeter)
"Boris Yeltsin"- a report on the legacy of Russian leader Boris Yeltsin, featuring interviews with Leon Aron, author of a new biography of Yeltsin and David Remnick, editor of The New Yorker magazine, author of two books on Russia and, for four years, Washington Post Moscow correspondent. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Rome Hartman)
Andy Rooney Topic: "Movie Reviews" - film critics

- 01/16/00 "MTBE" Part I & II - ten years ago Congress enacted legislation mandating that oil companies put the chemical MTBE (Methyl Tertiary Butyl Ether) in gasoline to make it burn cleaner. Problems have arisen because the chemical has seeped into ground water and caused widespread contamination of drinking supplies. Despite potential litigation against oil companies that could run into billions of dollars, the federal government still knows little about the extent of the problem or its health consequences. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Graham Messick)
"Ben Zander"- an interview with Ben Zander, conductor of the Boston Philharmonic Orchestra who is also a motivational speaker. (C: Morley Safer - P: Deirdre Naphin)
Andy Rooney Topic: "The Moral Of The Story" - what really happens
- 01/23/00 "Southern Exposure"- a class action lawsuit accuses the management of the Savannah River Site, a giant federal nuclear complex in South Carolina, of discriminating against blacks not only in hiring and promotions but for allegedly putting them in jobs that exposed them to more radiation than white workers. Report includes interviews with Ivan Smith, attorney for the workers and Joseph Buggy, president of Savannah River (C: Mike Wallace - P: Walt Bogdanich)
"Come Dancing"- competitive ballroom dancing has been an institution on British television for decades. Now there a movement afoot to make it an Olympic event. (C: Morley Safer - P: John Tiffin)
"Kevin Mitnick, Cyber-Thief"- once the FBI's most wanted computer criminal, Kevin Mitnick stole corporate secrets by hacking his way into the computer systems of the world's biggest corporations. Mitnick claims that he isn't a thief but an electronic joyrider who was guilty of invasion of privacy but who made no personal gain from his transgression. (C: Ed Bradley - P: Michael Radutsky)
Andy Rooney Topic: "Symbols" - Andy doesn't think the Confederate flag should be flown over the capitol of South Carolina
- 01/30/00 "Carol Burnett"- an interview with actress/comedian Carol Burnett (C: Mike Wallace - P: Maurice Murad) (OAD: 11/21/99)
"Big Man, Big Voice"- an interview with Thomas Quasthoff, a German-born victim of thalidomide who has been able to successfully pursue a singing career despite his deformities (C: Ed Bradley - P: Jeanne Solomon Langley) (OAD: 11/02/97)
"The Diva Next Door"- an interview with opera star Renee Fleming. (C: Morley Safer - P: Steven Reiner) (OAD: 04/18/99)
Andy Rooney Topic: "Car Ads"- unrealistic scenes in commercials (OAD: 10/26/97)

60 MINUTES II

- 01/04/00 "State Of Neglect"- Fran Peterson, a Georgia woman, was charged with reckless conduct in the death of her five-year-old foster child, Terrell. Georgia's Department of Family Services not only ignored evidence that the child was being abused, but tried to cover up departmental mismanagement of the case. Don Keenan, an Atlanta lawyer, is suing the state in Terrell's name. (C: Scott Pelley - P: Janet Klein)
"Rudy"- an interview with Mayor Rudolph Giuliani of New York City who is expected to run for the U.S. Senate. (C: Dan Rather - P: Linda Martin)
"Richard The Lionhearted"- a followup to "Richard The Lionhearted" (OAD 60 MINUTES 11/29/92), a profile of Richard Branson, British entrepreneur, adventurer and high school dropout. The followup consists of an interview with Branson, now 48. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Gail Eisen)

- 01/11/00 "Trump"- an interview with millionaire businessman Donald Trump who now aspires to be President of the U.S. (C: Dan Rather - P: Steve Glauber)
 "Doris & Dorothy"- Doris Wyne, who suffers from Alzheimer's and her twin sister, Dorothy who does not have the disease, are part of a Duke University study on memory and aging in twins. Researchers at Duke study identical twins because they have identical genes and finding individual differences in their lives might help discover what can trigger the onset of Alzheimer's disease or help to stave it off. (C: Vicki Mabrey - P: Lisa Cohen)
 "The Weapon That Failed"- the AGM-142, an Israeli-produced air-to-ground missile, was first used in combat during the war in Kosovo. Despite its high cost and inaccuracy, the weapon is still being produced. Includes interviews with retired General Buster Glosson, former commander of Air Force operations and former Rep. Charlie Wilson, now a lobbyist representing Rafael, the Israeli firm that makes the AGM-142. (C: David Martin - P: Mary Walsh)
 "Uncommon Sense"- Donald Trump as a presidential candidate (C: Jimmy Tingle)
 Update: "State of Neglect" OAD: 01/04/00
- 01/18/00 "Tobacco's Other Secret"- an interview with Les Thompson, a former salesman for the R.J. Reynolds Tobacco Company who is facing a six-year prison term for illegally smuggling cigarettes into Canada. Thompson claims that he is being made a scapegoat and that the R.J. Reynolds was not only aware of, but actually set up the smuggling operation to avoid paying import taxes. He is currently cooperating with criminal investigations in the U.S. and Canada. (C: Scott Pelley - P: David Schneider, Margaret Ebrahim)
 "A Different Kind of Family"- a profile of singer Melissa Etheridge, who with her companion, filmmaker Julie Cypher, is raising two children fathered through artificial insemination by rock legend David Crosby. (C: Charlie Rose - P: John Hamlin)

The followup consists of an interview with Perlman who has undertaken another career as a conductor and, with his wife Toby, is teaching young people at a summer music camp. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Barbara Dury, Nancy Lea)
 "Uncommon Sense"- Jimmy's thoughts about Martin Luther King (C: Jimmy Tingle)
- 01/25/00 "What Really Happened At Waco"- an investigation into what actually happened in Waco, Texas during a 1993 raid on the Branch Davidian compound by government agents. Today, the confrontation is the subject of two congressional investigations, an independent counsel and a multi-million dollar law suit against the government. Recent evidence seems to indicate that the U.S. Government is in part to blame for the ensuing disaster. (C: Dan Rather - P: Christopher Martin)
 "The Champion"- an interview with 28-year-old tennis star Pete Sampras. (C: Charlie Rose - P: Phil Shimkin)
 "The Children Under The Streets"- a report on the homeless children of Ulaanbatar, Outer Mongolia, many of whom seek refuge in sewer pipes that supply steam to the city. Includes interviews with Christina Noble, an Irish woman who has set up a foundation to help the street children and Douglas Gardner, the UN representative in Mongolia. (C: Vicki Mabrey - P: Rob Wallace)
 "Uncommon Sense"- weather reports: wind chill factor (C: Jimmy Tingle)
